SAP SuccessFactors Learning

THE BEST RUN

Objectives

Companies that embrace a culture of learning outperform the competition. With SAP SuccessFactors Learning, organizations can improve employee skills, reduce compliance risk, and effectively train external learning audiences.

SAP SuccessFactors Learning provides innovative capabilities that help create a culture of continuous learning, flexible and open approaches to supporting learning content, and proven business results at organizations around the world.

Companies that embrace a culture of learning outperform the competition.

Developing employee skills

Blended learning capabilities

- Provide clear, compelling career paths to better retain employees
- Ensure development goals are aligned with earning activities that can assist in curing performance gaps
- Set competency based development goals to reduce turnover and upskill the workforce
- Create Programs to combine internal and external items and content to support self-based training
- Complement the formal side of learning with informal capabilities such as blogs, videos, multimedia playlists, QuickGuides, documents, groups, personal workspaces, and tagging.
- Utilize the Open Content Network to provide broad access to expert-created content from partners edX, OpenSesame, lynda.com, Harvard Business Publishing (Harvard ManageMentor), Udacity, Coursera, and openHPI)

The Learning homepage provides the learning plan, learning history, recommendations, and access to all courses in the Catalog

Learning Accomplishments allow employees to set target learning goals against topics that interest them, and track training against those goals
